(Pg 38) To the Parish Clerk Sira

The following is an extract from my sermon delivered Decr. 11th, 1796 in which I gave my answer to the Inhabitants of Church & people of this Parish to settle with them in the work of the ministry. Heman Ball

Brethern.

Some considerable time has now elapsed since through your Committee, I received an Invitation from this Churchs people to settle with you in the work of the Gospel Ministry. It has not been owing to inattention that answer has not been given sooner. The relation proposed to take plan between us, I viewed to be a very important one in its nature of consequence highly interesting. I wished to take time in order for serious consideration. Diffidence of my own abilities and of my worthiness of so respectable a charge has led me to protract the time.

The friendly attention I have received from your all, since the time I first came into the place to reside, demands my admowledgements. For the respect which has been shown me, I most since sely give you my thanks. Permit me to assure you that I have a lively sence of the friendship which you have manifested toward me. I thank you for the liberal provision you have made for my comfortable support in life. The Office of a Minister in this plan will doubtless in some respects be more ardnous and difficult than in some other plans. Should a commexion take place between us, let me hope that the burden will be lightened by a constant experience of your candour and by your daily applications to the Throne of Grace.

I think I have entered upon the office of a preacher with a real desire to be useful to my fellow men and to help promote the cause of religion in the world. In order to be useful in the office of preacher, it appears necessary and is also according to the order of the Gospel that one be established in some (Pg 39) place (plan?) take the charge of the people and among them labor stately.

While considering upon your invitation & endeavoring to form my judgment, I humbly hope that I have had regard to the best interests of religion as well as to my own peace and comfort. Every circumstance and every providential event taken into view, I have been led to think that it may be the will of Providence that I should accept of your call. With this my inclinations fully coincide. My wish to serve you in the Gospel of outplord, to be made instrumental of promoting your spiritual interests are ardent and sincere. Were it not for a constant diffidence of my own abilities and trying doubts which greatly oppress my mind, I could in all other respects say. I cheerfully accept of your invitation. But I must be destitute of self knowledge not to feel diffident when contemplating to undertake so solemn and weighty a charge. But our sufficiency is of the Lord. If he bless, I shall be successful. If he with-hold his aid, I shall fail. To his power and grace I commit myself.

My Brethern, Let me beseech you for the Lord Jesus Christ sake, and for the love of this Spirit, that you strive together for the faith of the Gospel. Let brotherly love continue. Christians should unite together in their prayers & in their endeavors to build up the Church and to promote the cause of truth. God grant it may eventually prove that the Lord hath much people in this place.

Pg 40) An Ecclesiastical Council convened at the East Parish in Rutland, State of Vermont Peb. 1st 1797 in pursuance of letters missive from the Church & People therein to ordain Mr. Heman Ball, a Gospel Minister over them consisting of the first church in West Springfield & the churches in Walpolo, Pitsford & Suffield by Pastors & Delegates in Bennington & Dartmouth by Delegates. After chusing the Rev. Dr. Lathrop, Moderator & Mr. Pessenden, Scribe & the opening of the Council by prayer by the Moderator; proceeded to inquire into the call & enswers of Mr. Ball, his qualifications as a Minister; and unanimously voted to proceed to Ordination; & that the Exercises be performed in the following orders.

The introductory prayer by Mr. Hackarland from Dartmouth. The Rev. Mr. Harwood of Pittsford to make the consecrating prayer.

Mr. Fessendan of Walpole to give the charge.

The Rev. Mr. Gay of Suffield to give the Right hand of fellowship and the Revd. Moderator to conclude the solemnity with prayer.

Rutland, Feb. 1st, 1797 The ordination of the Rev. Mr. Ball took place this day according to the above arrangement. Thos, Fessenden, Scribe

Rutland, 26th of Decr. 1807 The Inhabitants of the East Parish met agreeably to adjournment. The Committee appointed on the 27th of Octr. under the 9th and 10th articles of that meeting made the following report ( to wit)

The undersigned Inhabitants of the Bast Parish in Rutland impressed with the importance & utility of keeping up and maintaining social & religious Worship within the same, do agree with each other & bind ourselves to a faithful performance of the following Articles, viz:

Article 1st There shall be held an annual meeting of the Society on the first Monday of September at 2 o' elock P.M. at the Courthouse in said Parish, at which a majority of the members of the Society so met shall have power to vote a tax on the list of the polls and retable estate of the member of said Society for the purpose of carrying into effect the (Pg 44) object of this Association in the same manner as towns and other incorporated Societies within this Sante are authorized by law to do. The first meeting of this Scociety to be held at the Courthouse in sd Parish on the first day of February A.D. 1808 at 2 o'clock P.M.

- Article 2nd These Societies at their annual meeting shall have power and it shall be their duty to appoint a Clerk, Treasurer & Collector for the sd corporation which officers respectively shall have the same powers, be subject to the same duties and perform the same services for sd society and be entitled to the same fees as town officers of a similar description are entitled to by law in their respective towns.
- Article 3d It shall be the duty of the said clerk of Society for the time being and in his absence of the Treasurer or Collector on application of seven members of sd Society for that purpose, to call a meeting of sd Society, giving notice thereof in the manner pointed out in the first section of the Act entitled an act regulating town meetings and the choice and duty of town officers passed February 28th, 1797— and the Society when met, being notified thereof in sd warning may proceed to fill any vacancy in office which may have happened or do and transact any business which they are authorized to do or transact at their annual meeting. (Pg 45)
- Article bth The Society shall annually and oftener if need be appoint three assessors, whose duty it shall be immediately upon granting any tax by the Society, to make out bill of the tax to be collected of each and every member of the Society according to his list; and it shall be the duty of such assessors to deliver the rate bill made out as aforesaid to the treasurer, whose duty it shall be upon the receipt thereof to issue his warrant in the usual form to the collector to collect the same and pay it over to the treasurer, within the time expressed in his warrant.
- Article 5th Whereas the Rev'd Heman Ball on the first day of February A.D. 1797 ordained the Gospel Minister in and over this Parish for the term of his natural life on a salary of four-hundred thirty three dollars and thirty-three cents per amoun and whereas the said Heman Ball has continued from the time aforesaid to the present, to appreciate in his said Ministerial capacity in and over the people of this Parish to the general satisfaction of the same; we therefore who compose this Society and Association do covenant and agree with the said Heman Ball that so long as he shall continue to be the (Pg 46) Minister in and over this Parish aforesaid we will pay to him annually from and after the first day of February A.D. 1808 out of the monies of the Society to be raised as aforesaid the amount of his salary as stipulated at his ordination and settlement as above.

Article 6th It is expressly understood and agreed by this Society that no person who may subscribe to these Articles shall be holden any tax to said Society, the expences of which accrued and the tax paid after such person shall have removed out of the Parish, nor shall the Society have power to law or raise a tax of more than three cents on the dollar on the list of the numbers of the Society in any one year.

Article 7th And it is further expressly understood and agreed by this Society that any member of the same shall have full power and liberty at the expiration of any year to withdraw from this association and Society and to discharge himself from paying any taxes, thereafter levied and assessed for any expences which have not previously accrued by entering with the clerk of this Society a certificate in the fecords following to wit .---

NOTE

These records were copied from the original Book of Minutes of the East Parish Congregational Church of Rutland, Vermont in March 1952. They begin with the year 1788 and end with the year 1852, covering a period of sixty-four years.

The original is of coarse tan paper, probably hand made and is written with brown ink which is very faded and in some instances almost illegible. Undoubtedly it was originally calf bound, but the cover is now gone.

Because of the fragility of this volume, it is kept in the safe of the Congregational Church of Rutland, Vermont.
